MCAC Golf Event Honors 'Give to Get' Legacy at April 19, 2024 Tournament

121 Golfers • 33 Sponsors •
$3,000 Raised for the Gary Sinise Foundation

THANK YOU • THANK YOU • THANK YOU

The third annual MCAC Legacy Golf Tournament was held April 19, 2024 at Eagle Glen Golf Club in Corona, CA to honor MCAC founder, USAF Navigator, Purple Heart recipient and avid golfer Ryan O'Brien. This day of play also has a very special purpose - to give back to our nation's heroes. MCAC was honored to host a distinguished foursome with such heroes and to donate $3,000 to the Gary Sinise Foundation in recognition of our Military Service Members. We appreciate all the companies and individuals that played a part in making the day a win!

Thank you Angelus Block for capturing some video of the day. See you all next year!

In Memoriam

Stuart "Stu" Robert Beavers

April 15, 1929 - March 2, 2024

Stu Beavers, a dedicated leader in the construction industry, passed away on March 2, 2024, at the age of 94. As a key figure in the Mason Contractors Association of California (MCAC), then known as the California Conference of Mason Contractor Associations or CCMCA, he served as Secretary on its first board of directors in 1963 and later as President in 1966-67. His early work in masonry was with Modern Masonry, Incorporated. At the time of his passing, Stu was a MCAC Honorary Member, the highest honor bestowed upon the Association's most loyal members. Stu's commitment to the industry was evident throughout his career, including his roles at the Masonry Institute of America (MIA), the Concrete Masonry Association of California and Nevada (CMACN), and his tenure as President of The Masonry Society (TMS). He leaves behind a legacy of leadership, kindness, and expertise. Stu Beavers is survived by his first wife, Virginia, and their son and three daughters, with spouses. His second wife, Martha passed in 2018, and Stu is survived by two of her sons and spouses. He is also survived by numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
