MCAC Has Moved.

We are pleased to announce that MCAC has moved!

As of July 1, our new address is:

2485 Natomas Park Drive,
Suite 540
Sacramento, CA 95833

Please update your records to reflect our new address.

By subleasing from another association, we are recognizing significant savings. The budget will thank us!

This relocation marks a significant milestone for MCAC. We occupied our previous space since 1977 and, while it served us well over the decades, the move to our new office brings important benefits for the association's long-term viability.

In a strange but fortuitous and mutually beneficial twist of fate, the Concrete Masonry Association of California and Nevada (CMACN) will be the new inhabitants of the former MCAC office. We hope it serves them well! Author's note: It's definitely going to take some getting used to seeing our old address on CMACN's correspondence! #keepingitinthefamily

California's New Indoor Heat Illness Regulation is Effective as of July 23, 2024

In California, employers must now take steps to protect workers from heat illness in both indoor and outdoor workplaces under California Code of Regulations, Title 8 (T8CCR), sections 3395 (outdoor) and 3396 (indoor). The "Heat Illness Prevention in Indoor Places of Employment" standard applies to most workplaces where the indoor temperature reaches 82°F. This standard went into effect on July 23, 2024.

Many of the indoor regulation requirements mirror those of the outdoor regulation -- so much so that Cal/OSHA provides a combined model plan for employers to use (see Resources below). Both require:

- a written plan,
- training of impacted workers,
- administrative and engineering controls,
- provision of water and access to cool-down areas,
- acclimatization, and
- emergency response procedures.

See the Comparison Chart for Indoor and Outdoor Heat Illness Regulations for a summary of the similarities and differences between the two regulations.

Cal/OSHA can now begin indoor heat illness inspections based on the new regulation. So, take advantage of the Resources below and upcoming Training to make sure your business is in compliance.
